TOWRY LAW SPONSORS THE NATIONAL OPEN ART COMPETITION

Towry Law, the Private and Corporate Wealth Advisers, is delighted to announce its sponsorship of the first prize in The National Open Art Competition 2008.

This competition is open to all artists and its aims include encouraging younger artists and widening public understanding of art. The judges invite entries across the spectrum of contemporary art, including paintings, drawings and print, from across the UK.

Andrew Fisher, Chief Executive, Towry Law, said:

"We are delighted to sponsor The National Open Art Competition, an event which is growing in importance and deserves wider recognition.

"The Competition's aims of supporting excellence and understanding in art are aligned with ours of supporting excellence and understanding in wealth advice."
