TOWRY LAW APPOINTS NEW SENIOR CLIENT PARTNER

Towry Law, the Private and Corporate Wealth Advisers, today announces the promotion of Bryan Innes to the role of Senior Client Partner.

Senior Client Partner is a role given to the Wealth Advisers who adhere to the highest professional standards in the industry and best demonstrate the core values of Towry Law.

Bryan, who is a Chartered Financial Planner based in Aberdeen, joined Towry Law (formerly Aitchison & Colegrave) in 1999. He provides holistic financial planning and wealth advice to private individuals and corporate clients. Bryan has been instrumental in the development of Towry Law's fast growing business in Scotland and, in particular, building relationships within the oil and gas industry and professional services firms in and around Aberdeen.

Andy Cowan, Head of Private Client, Towry Law, said:

"We are delighted to announce Bryan as a Senior Client Partner. Bryan embodies all of the qualities required of our most senior advisers.

"Bryan will be an invigorating new addition to our Senior Client Partner team and we wish him every success in this new and exciting phase of his career with Towry Law. Bryan's appointment further demonstrates our commitment to Scotland as we strive to become the UK's leading provider of Private and Corporate Wealth Advice."

Information on Towry Law:

Towry Law is a fast growing Wealth Advice business, with Chartered Financial Planning status, employing over 600 people in 12 offices across the United Kingdom.

Towry Law offers fee-based, independent wealth advice and investment management services to private individuals, with investable assets in excess of £100,000, and small and medium sized enterprises (SMEs).

The Company's vision is to become the UK's leading provider of Private and Corporate Wealth Advice. They aim to achieve this by having professionally qualified employees delivering high quality advice and investment management services to their clients supported by a strong and robust operational infrastructure. Over 70% of Towry Law Wealth Advisers are qualified to at least Level 4 Diploma standard, the industry benchmark from 2012, compared with around 20% in the rest of the industry.

The Company, founded in 1958, was acquired by John Scott & Partners in May 2006. The merged business was re-launched in July 2007 as Towry Law. During 2007, the Company acquired Baker Tilly Financial Services Limited, the financial advisory division of the mid-tier accountancy firm Baker Tilly, and the UK activities of MLP Private Finance and the regional firms, McGowan in St Andrews, Scotland, Analysis in L'Derry, Northern Ireland and Hazlems Financial, based in London.

Towry Law is privately owned; the principal shareholders are Palamon Capital Partners, one of Europe's leading private equity firms, and Towry Law employees.

Towry Law has been accredited as one of the Sunday Times 'Best 100 Companies to Work For' and as one of the Sunday Times Virgin 'Fast Track 100' companies. Towry Law has also been appointed by Camelot to provide holistic financial planning advice to National Lottery winners.
