TOWRY LAW IS THE 'BEST RETIREMENT ADVISER'

Towry Law, the Wealth Advisers, has won the prestigious "Best Retirement Adviser" award in the Moneyfacts Good Advice Awards 2009.

The Good Advice Awards, as described by Moneyfacts, "reward the very best adviser organisations in the country, at a time when it has never been more important to recognise and promote those organisations that provide excellent financial advice."

Andrew Fisher, Chief Executive, Towry Law, said:

"We are thrilled to win this award, which we see as a reflection of the quality of advice we provide to our clients.

"People need independent advice on their pensions; it is a highly complex area. We work with our clients, on a time-cost basis, to develop a strategy for their retirement. Sometimes retirement is imminent and other times it is decades away but, without a strategy, people risk taking the wrong course of action.

"We have a strong team of pension experts who determine our policy and our professionally qualified advisers work with our clients to determine the plan best suited to meeting their needs.

"Our vision is to become the leading firm of Wealth Advisers in the UK and being recognised as the leading firm for delivery of retirement advice is a strong endorsement."
